

Series: "The Well-Dressed Christian"
Today: "Controlling Our Anger" - Ephesians 4:26-27

1. We should be angry when people hurt _____, but we are often angry when we think people have done something against us.
2. When we get angry because things don't work out like we want, we are really getting angry with _____, who controls all things.
3. True or False? Anger is normal in our world, so it must be normal for Christians too.
4. Which shows greater strength, to get angry or to control ourselves?
5. Who gives us self-control?
6. One way to keep our anger from being sinful is to deal with it _____.
7. Which of the following is the best way to confess our anger and ask forgiveness?
  - a. "I got angry when you once again brought up the wall that needs painted."
  - b. "I apologize if in any way I might have offended anyone."
  - c. "I sinned by being unjustifiably angry, and I hurt you with my unkind words. Will you please forgive me?"
8. If we do not deal with our selfish anger right away, we are allowing the _____ to work in our lives.
9. Jesus explained that being angry with others is breaks the sixth commandment, which says, "You shall not _____."
10. God's anger is always righteous and directed against evil. In order not to be angry with us, he redirected his anger to the substitute he provided. Who is this substitute?
11. If we have faith in God's substitute, is God still angry with us?
12. If God is no longer angry with us, should we be angry with others?
