

Series: "The Well-Dressed Christian"
Today: "Just as God Did" - Ephesians 4:31-32

1. Match the things we should put off with their descriptions:

bitterness	speaking bad about others or insulting them
wrath and anger	yelling at each other
clamor	desiring bad things for others
slander	having a hard heart toward others
malice	explosions and resentments toward others

2. Match the things we should put on with their descriptions:

being kind	not treating people according to their sins
being tenderhearted	showing goodness toward others
forgiving others	showing sincere compassion for others

3. God shows kindness to everyone and especially to those who _____ in Christ.

4. Christians should forgive others, because _____ forgave us.

5. God forgave us in Christ, because Christ _____ the penalty for our sins.

6. In forgiving us, God treats us:

- a. according to our sins but not as severely as he would have.
- b. as if we had never sinned but been perfectly obedient always.
- c. well as long as we never sin again.